

Wellington Fruit and Vege Co-operatives: Developing a Community Food Security Model

Emmeline Haymes & Jessica Jones

Outline

- Origins
- How does it work?
- Evolution
- Infrastructure
- Model
- Environmental impacts
- Moving towards sustainability
- Success

Origins

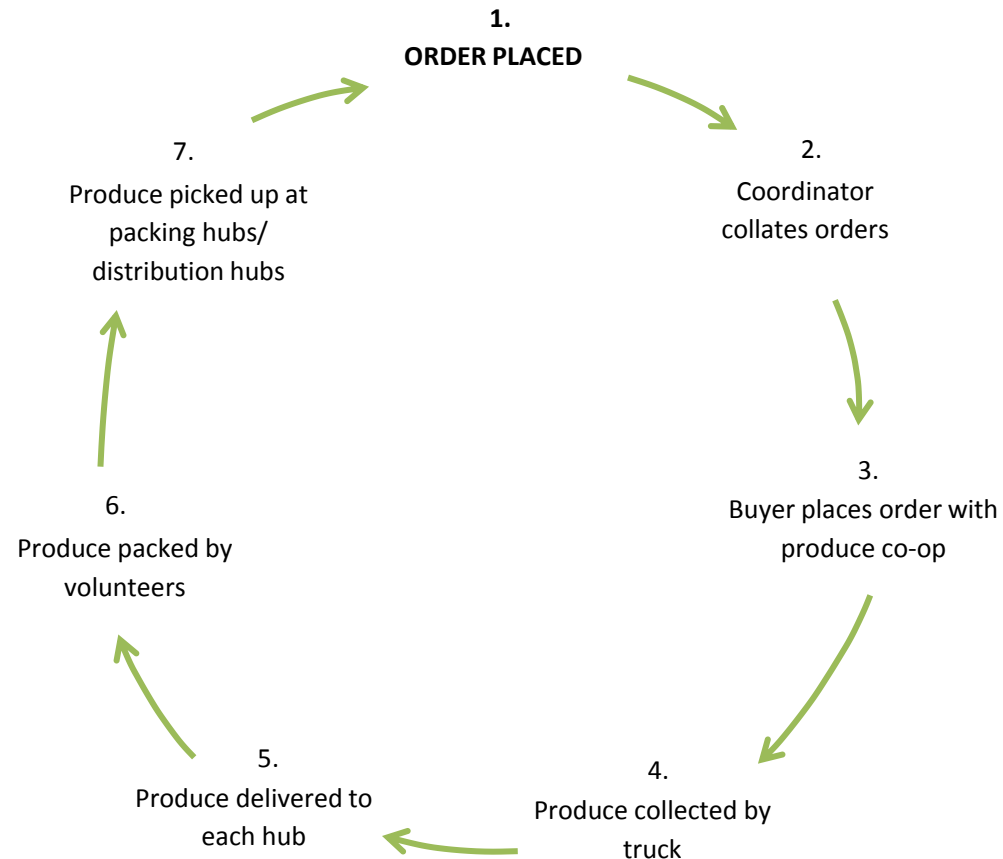

Fruit and vegetable servings

Pre and post survey findings of respondents having a high fruit and vegetable intake (2 or more servings of fruit and 3 or more servings of vegetables).

How does it work?

Evolution

Infrastructure

EASTERN SUBURBS
Miramar

NAENAE
Naenae, Taita, Pomare,
Stokes Valley

KAPITI
Paraparaumu

ORONGOMAI
MARAE
Upper Hutt, Timberlea,
Maoribank, Trentham

PORIRUA
Cannons Creek,
Waitangirua

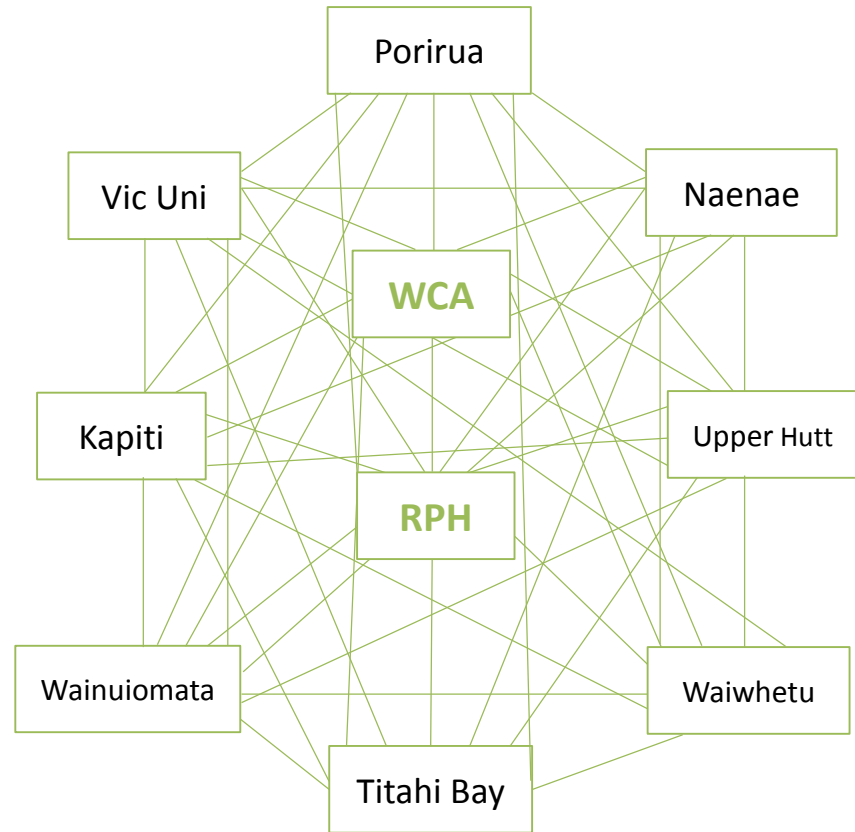

TITAHI BAY
Titahi Bay, Tawa,
Porirua

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY

WAINUIOMATA

WAIWHETU

Model

Environmental impacts

- Health and safety
- Food Act 2016
- Transport
- Missing produce
- Volunteer turnover

Moving towards sustainability

Perspectives on success of our collective enterprise

For more information

Public Health Advisors:

Emmeline Haymes: emmeline.haymes@huttvalleydhb.org.nz

Jessica Jones: jessica.jones@huttvalleydhb.org.nz

Websites:

Regional Public Health: www.rph.org.nz

Wesley Community Action: www.wesleyca.org.nz

Food Together: www.foodtogether.co.nz

The Stop: www.thestop.org