RECIPES FOR LARGE FAMILIES

2ND EDITION

Kai Lelei

Recipes for Large Families

The first edition of 'Recipes for Large Families' was coordinated by Pip Duncan in response to many requests for economical recipes that incorporate Pacific food recipes and cultural themes.

Kai Lelei is a Pacific concept that means 'a good meal', 'a beautiful meal', 'an attractive meal', 'a healthier meal', 'a nutritious meal', and/or 'to eat well'. This recipe book aims to draw from the strengths of our traditional Pacific food, recipes and preparatory methods to produce meals that are inclusive of Pacific and other cultures and traditions. We hope to encourage our Pacific children and families to use this book to celebrate Pacific food and traditions being healthier in order to prevent illness so that we can live longer, healthier and prosperous lives.
